LTV / CAC · payback
1.22× · m7

Base · why

1.22×

- 1.8% click: just under the 1.9% market median
- 15% fewer pay: prices went up

Better · why

1.42×

- Strong hooks, 2.0% click: 1.36×
- People stay longer (calendar): 1.42×

How we get there

60 / 40

- 60% static: cheaper purchases
- 40% video: more clicks

Risk: weak static ads (1.2% click) → 0.82×. So creatives go first.

CTR = all clicks (Meta default): median 1.90% (Databox 2026) · static vs video: CTR 1.1% vs 1.9%, cost per purchase $34.50 vs $48.20 (ATTN 2026) · 1.42× = strong hooks + first renewal 56 → 60%, month 12 10 → 12% · CPM $30: Affect Group, US, Q4 · LTV = $97.22 revenue minus Paddle fee, refunds, disputes, AI and speech-to-text · Google Sheet, block 1

How we get there: test first, then scale

1. Creatives: static + video together, 60 / 40
   goal: click 1.8 → 2.0% · test costs $4.4k, 15 days
2. Paywall: your result + plan on top goal: pays 15 → 18% · needs a bigger budget
3. Retention: calendar + reminder before each meeting
   goal: first renewal 56 → 60% · with 2.0% click → 1.42×

Cash to break even

$12.4k

month 14 · at $8,670 a month

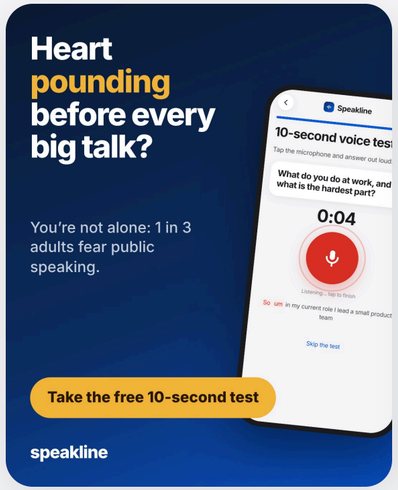

Better hooks: month 12 or 10

Scale at LTV/CAC ≥ 1.5

Each test: one metric, sample set in advance, full weeks, no peeking, guardrails refunds and renewals · two-proportion test, α 0.05, power 80% · samples: creatives 73,147 impressions, paywall 2,404 views ($48.7k, 168 days) per variant · retention is tracked by monthly cohorts: an A/B needs 2,389 subscribers per variant, so it waits for scale · budget $289 a day · better hooks: $10.3k (1.9%), $8.8k (2.0%) · cash: ads and variable costs only, no salaries · Google Sheet, blocks 9 and 10

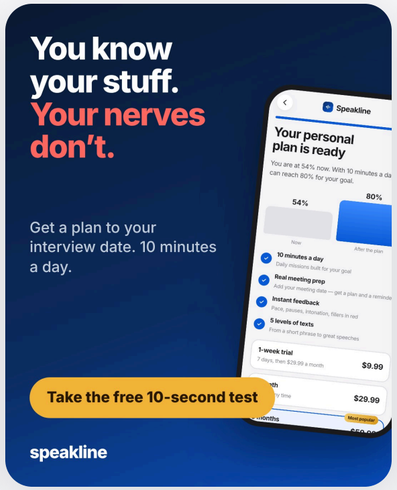

Creatives: static and video, both start from the pain

Static · the nerves

"Heart pounding before every big talk?"

Static · the nerves

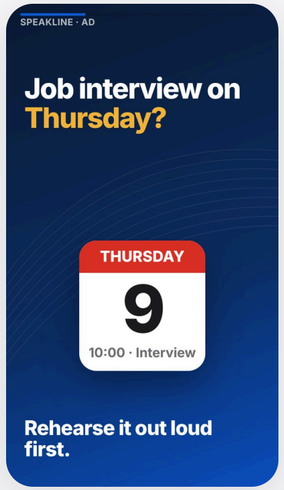

"You know your stuff. Your nerves don't."

Video

"How many times do you say um?"

Video

"Job interview on Thursday?"

What others don't give

- Live practice with numbers
- A plan to your date
- One price, no jump

Each ad: the pain in 2 seconds → the app → the free 10-second test · rendered from live app screens · video 1080×1920, 12 s · static 1080×1350 · test 1: 73,147 impressions per variant (≈ $4.4k, 15 days) · RiseGuide reviews: BBB, App Store
